

The Equality Act 2010

This DVD has been prepared as an aid to meeting legal requirements in relation to equality and promoting good practice in this area more broadly. Significant attempts to tackle inequalities have been a fundamental part of the legal landscape for decades now, with varying degrees of success. In this presentation leading author and equalities expert, Dr Neil Thompson, emphasises the importance of equality as a basis for humane and effective organisations and explains how the Equality Act 2010 can play a part in taking forward our efforts to promote equality and value diversity.

The presenter

Dr Neil Thompson is well-known in the people professions as an author, trainer, consultant and conference speaker. He has over 150 publications to his name, including several bestselling books. He has held full or honorary professorships at four UK universities and is currently a director of Avenue Consulting Ltd. For further information about Neil, visit www.neilthompson.info

Who is the resource for?

Any organisation wanting to do more than simply meet its legal obligations in relation to racial discrimination will find this DVD and its associated materials of value. Training providers working in or for organisations across the public, private, voluntary and educational sectors will be able to make good use of the opportunities for learning that this DVD presents. Similarly, teachers and tutors in schools, colleges and universities will be able to put the resources to good use in teaching modules concerned with equality and diversity.